

BAD PROBLEMS

1. All recommendations envisaged by paragraph 3 of the President's letter of 22 January 1946 will be submitted by the Director of Central Intelligence to the Intelligence Advisory Board in writing, accompanied by copies of such papers or statements with which the Director of Central Intelligence may contemplate accompanying the recommendations upon presentation to the IAB. These recommendations will have attached a voting slip providing opportunity for:

- a. concurrence or non-concurrence;
 - b. comment;
 - c. request for an IAB meeting to express oral advisory opinion.

Voting slips will be returned to the Secretary, CIA, within seven working days after receipt. If any Intelligence Advisory Board member so requests, an Intelligence Advisory Board meeting shall be called promptly by the Director of Central Intelligence. If the IAB proposes to refer the recommendation to a special study group, or otherwise to delay the submission of the recommendation to the CIA, and if the Director of Central Intelligence considers such delay inadvisable, he shall give the IAB members seven working days for the submission of any detailed statement of non-concurrence. The basis of which will accompany the recommendation to the CIA.

2. The Secretary, CIA, shall circulate to IAB members any recommendations, proposed directives, papers, etc., which an IAB member may originate for consideration by the Director of Central Intelligence and the Intelligence Advisory Board. Each shall be accompanied by a writing slip providing opportunity for:

- a. concurrence sur les conclusions;
 - b. comment;
 - c. request for an IAB meeting.

3. Recommendations which any IAB member may originate and in which at least one other IAB member concurs will be forwarded by the Director of Central Intelligence to the NIA, together with the comments of the Director of Central Intelligence and the other IAB members. Opportunities for comment will be in accord with the procedures set forth in paragraph 1 above.

4. All implementations envisaged by paragraph 3 of NIA Directive No. 1 will be submitted by the Director of Central Intelligence to the Intelligence Advisory Board in writing, accompanied by a voting slip providing opportunity for:

- a. concurrence or non-concurrence;
- b. comment;
- c. request for an IAB meeting to express oral advisory opinion.

Written comment by any IAB member, after consideration by the Director of Central Intelligence, will be filed by the Secretary, NIA with the file copy of the related implementation. Oral comments will be fully spread on the minutes of the IAB meeting, if held. Any implementation modified by the Director of Central Intelligence as the result of IAB advisory opinion will be distributed by the Secretary, NIA to the IAB. The decision to hold subsequent IAB meetings, or otherwise to delay the issuance of any proposed implementation, rests with the Director of Central Intelligence.
